

NO. 4, SENCHI STREET, AIRPORT RESIDENTIAL AREA, ACCRA

Resolutions of the Meeting of the Pan-African Committee for Social Communications (CEPACS) held at SECAM Secretariat, Accra, Ghana from June 6-9, 2016

We, participants at the meeting of the Pan-African Episcopal Committee of Social Communications (CEPACS) comprising regional Chairmen of social communications with the attendance of Secretaries of Communications, Catholic Media Council (CAMECO), SIGNIS Africa, the Union of Africa Catholic Press (UCAP), the Catholic News Agency for Africa and resource persons, having deliberated on issues concerning social communications of the Church in Africa, hereby resolve

1. To hold statutory meetings and conduct workshops and regular evaluations of CEPACS in order to ensure communication interaction at all levels on our continent.
2. To offer effective and efficient communication services to SECAM and all its departments in their quest to achieve their objectives in their mission of evangelization.
3. To work for closer collaboration among the institutes and agencies of communication such as SIGNIS, UCAP, CAMECO, Pontifical Council for Social Communications, etc. as well as other partner organizations.
4. To promote and advertise the opportunities offered by the redesigned SECAM website and encourage Bishops' conferences, Catholic institutions, organizations, associations, and other men and women of good will to visit the website and apply for membership.
5. To fully support the work of the Catholic News Agency for Africa (CANAA), a project of SECAM, as an authentic outfit for telling the story of the African Church to whole world.

We invoke the Holy Spirit who inspired the Blessed Virgin Mary, the star of evangelization, to inspire our effort and grant us success. Our Lady of Africa, Pray for us!

Done in Accra, Ghana, Thursday, June 09, 2016

